WIM ALLIANCE

Newsletter

Dear {{ contact.FIRST_NAME }},

This month's newsletter spotlights a range of IDWIM 2025 activities, shares the latest WIM Momentum session, and shares updates from WIM organisations around the world.

We're also excited to share some key milestones from the Steering Committee:

- Our new brand identity is coming together, with a fresh logo and colour palette nearly finalised
- A dedicated IWIM Alliance website is currently in development
- And we're proud to support this year's International Day of Women in Mining (IDWIM 2025)

As always, thank you for being part of this journey. Your continued support is invaluable as we move into this next phase of growth.

Warm regards,
The International WIM Alliance Team

Panel One: The Power of Allies Redefining Leadership, Ownership & Inclusion in Mining

This session will explore how true allyship is reshaping the mining industry by co-creating new systems of ownership, equity, and influence, not just offering support.

Panel Two: Moving Beyond Traditional DEI Discussions

This bold, boundary-pushing session will challenge the status quo and ask the difficult questions many organisations shy away from.
